To All Those Soon To Be Temporarily Absent Pet Owners,

Believe us, we understand how anxious it can be for you to leave your "furry" family members behind. No matter for how short a time period, sometimes it's just unavoidable; but no less stressful.

Well we are happy to say to you, without any reservation whatsoever, that you can trust the care and well being of your beloved pets to the capable hands of Bobbie Klein and her On Call 4 Pets sitting service during your absence.

VERY rarely do we sit down and write a letter of recommendation for any business...Period! However we know how important it is for you as a pet owner to secure care in your home with absolute confidence during your absence. And because we were fortunate enough to find Bobbie and On Call 4 Pets, we had to help get the word out.

When we first interviewed Bobbie she immediately put us at ease, showed us her licenses and other credentials. Explained her policy of getting clearance with our vet's office to transport our pets in an emergency. This was particularly important to us because one of our cats is a special needs geriatric senior, who needs meds twice daily. Bobbie set up a meds chart for us to see along with her daily visit log, which documented the times and frequencies of her visits. Additionally, Bobbie knowing how anxious we were leaving home, communicated via text every few days to keep in touch with how things were going. She is the complete professional.

We are happy to report in our ten-day absence, everything went perfectly well; our "kids" Hamilton and Grey were very well taken care of. Needless to say if we ever have to leave for an extended absence again, our first call will be to Bobbie and On Call 4 Pets.

If you're planning on going away soon...It should be your first call too!

Thanks again Bobbie,
